Commitment of offenders between twelve and <sup>2</sup>[eighteen]
years of age

Provided that a young person may be sentenced to imprisonment or committed to prison as aforesaid where the court certifies that he is of so unruly or of so depraved a character that he is not a fit person to be sent to a senior <sup>1</sup>[approved] school and that none of the other methods in which the case may legally be dealt with is suitable.

23. (1) Where any person, who in the opinion of the court before which he is charged is <sup>3</sup>[twelve years of age or upwards but less than eighteen years of age], is convicted of an offence punishable with <sup>4</sup>[imprisonment], the court may, in addition to or in lieu of sentencing him according to law to any other punishment, order that he be sent to a <sup>5</sup>[senior approved school.]

(2) Where a child apparently under the age of twelve years is found to have committed an offence punishable with <sup>4</sup>[imprisonment], the court, if satisfied on inquiry that it is expedient so to deal with the child, may order him to be sent to a <sup>6</sup>[junior approved school].

(3) Where a child, apparently of the age of twelve or thirteen years, is found to have committed an offence punishable with <sup>1</sup>[imprisonment], and the court is satisfied on inquiry that the child should be sent to <sup>2</sup>[an approved school], but, having regard to the special circumstances of the case, should not be sent to a <sup>3</sup>[senior approved school], and is also satisfied that the character and antecedents of the child are such that he will not exercise an evil influence over the other children in a <sup>4</sup>[junior approved school], the court may order the child to be sent to a <sup>4</sup>[junior approved school] having previously ascertained that the managers are willing to receive the child:

Provided that the <sup>5</sup>[State Government] may, on application of the managers of the <sup>4</sup>[junior approved school], by order transfer the child to a <sup>3</sup>[senior approved school].

Central

(4) Where a child or young person has been ordered by a court to give security under section 106 or section 118 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898*, and has failed to do so, the court which passed the order may order such child or young person to be sent to a <sup>4</sup>[junior approved school] or a <sup>3</sup>[senior approved school] respectively.

Period of detention.

24. The order in pursuance of which the youthful offender or child is sent to <sup>2</sup>[an approved school] shall specify the time for which the youthful offender or child is to be detained in the school, being—

(a) in the case of a youthful offender sent to a <sup>3</sup>[senior approved school], not less than two and not more than five years but not in any case extending beyond the time when the youthful offender will, in the opinion of the court, attain the age of <sup>4</sup>[twenty-one] years ; and

<sup>5</sup>[(b) in the case of a child sent to a junior approved school, such time not being less than two years as to the court may seem proper for the training and education of the child, but not in any case extending beyond the time when the child will, in the opinion of the court, attain the age of eighteen years.]

Power to discharge youthful offender or [to place him in] suitable custody.

25. <sup>6</sup>[(1)] A court may, if it shall think fit, instead of directing any youthful offender to be detained in <sup>2</sup>[an approved school], order him to be—

(a) discharged after due admonition, or

<sup>5</sup>These words were substituted for the words "under the supervision of a person named by the court" by ibid.

(3) <sup>1</sup>[The parent, guardian, relative or other person in whose custody a youthful offender has been placed or the probation officer or other person under whose supervision a youthful offender has been placed, may at any time while the order placing him in such custody or placing him under such supervision remains in force and while the offender is under the age of eighteen years], bring him before the court which passed the order or any other court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the youthful offender may then be residing, and such court may, if it thinks that it is desirable in the interests of the youthful offender so to do, vary the order or orders previously passed and order him to be sent to <sup>2</sup>[an approved school] or pass a fresh order or orders under subsection (1).]

Power to order

parent to pay fine, etc., instead of child or young person.

26. (1) Where a child or young person is convicted of an offence punishable with fine and the court is of opinion that the case would be best met by the imposition of a fine, whether with or without any other punishment, the court may in any case, and shall if the offender is a child, order that the fine be paid by the parent or guardian of the child or young person, unless the court is satisfied that the parent or guardian cannot be found or that he has not conducted to the commission of the offence by neglecting to exercise due care of the child or young person.

(2) An order under this section may be made against a parent or guardian who, having been required to attend, has failed to do so, but, save as aforesaid, no such order shall be made without giving the parent or guardian an opportunity of being heard.

<sup>1</sup> These words were substituted for the words "The parent, guardian, relative or other person, to whose custody a youthful offender has been committed, or the probation officer or other person under whose supervision a youthful offender has been placed, may, at any time while the order committing him to such custody or placing him under such supervision remains in force and while the offender is under the age of sixteen years" by section 10(ii) of the Tamil Nadu Children (Amendment) Act, 1958 (Tamil Nadu Act XXXVII of 1958).

(3) Where a parent or guardian is directed to pay a fine under this section, the amount may be recovered in accordance with the provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898*.

27. (1) When a child or young person is convicted of an offence of so serious a nature that the court is of opinion that no punishment which under the provisions of this Act it is authorized to inflict is sufficient, the court shall order the offender to be kept in safe custody in such place or manner as it thinks fit and shall report the case for the orders of the <sup>1</sup>[State Government].

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 22, the <sup>1</sup>[State Government] may order any such child or young person to be detained in such place and on such conditions as it thinks fit, and while so detained the child or young person shall be deemed to be in legal custody :

Provided that no period of detention so ordered shall exceed the maximum period of imprisonment to which the child or young person could have been sentenced for the offence committed.

28. Where a child or young person charged with any offence is tried by any court, and the court is satisfied of his guilt, the court shall take into consideration the manner in which, under the provisions of this or any other Act enabling the court to deal with the case, the case should be dealt with namely, whether,

(a) by discharging the offender after due admonition; or

licence.

33. (1) Where a youthful offender or child is detained in <sup>1</sup>[an approved school], the managers of the school may at any time with the consent of the chief inspector, or after the expiration of eighteen months of the period of detention without any such consent, by licence permit the youthful offender or child on the conditions prescribed in this behalf to live with any trustworthy and respectable person named in the licence willing to receive and take charge of him:

<sup>2</sup>[Provided that the chief inspector may exercise the powers conferred on the managers of the school by this sub-section if, in his opinion, there will be delay in obtaining the orders of the managers and such delay will be prejudicial to the interests of the youthful offender or child concerned. A copy of every order made under this proviso shall be communicated forthwith to the <sup>3</sup>[State] Government and another copy shall be communicated as soon as may be to the managers of the school.]

(2) Any licence so granted shall be in force until revoked or forfeited by the breach of any of the conditions on which it was granted.

(3) The managers of the school may at any time by order in writing revoke any such licence, and order the youthful offender or child to return to the school and shall do so at the desire of the person with whom the youthful offender or child is licensed to live. If the youthful offender or child refuses or fails to return to the school, the managers of the school may, if necessary, arrest or cause to be arrested the youthful offender or child and take him or cause him to be taken back to the school.

[PART VI-A.

*Special provisions in respect of children

36-A. (1) Whoever having the actual charge of or control over, a child or young person wilfully assaults, ill-treats, neglects, abandons or exposes him or causes or procures him to be assaulted, ill-treated, neglected, abandoned, or exposed or neglects, in a manner likely to cause unnecessary mental or physical suffering, to provide adequate food, clothes or medical aid or lodging for the child or young person shall, on conviction, be punishable with imprisonment of either description, for a term which may extend to two years or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both:

Provided that where the offence under this section is committed against a woman, being a married young person, the court trying the offence may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, permit the offence to be compounded by the husband or if the husband is the person accused of such offence by some person who had care of her before her marriage.

(2) The infliction of reasonable punishment on a child or young person for a proper reason shall not be deemed to be an offence under this section.

36-B. Whoever employs any child or young person for the purpose of begging or whoever having the custody, charge or care of a child or young person connives at or encourages or allows the employment of such child or young person for the purpose of begging, and whoever uses a child or young person as an exhibit or the purpose of begging shall, on conviction, be punishable with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to one year or with fine which may extend to three hundred rupees or with both.

Penalty for giving intoxicating liquor or dangerous drug to child or young person.

36-C. Whoever gives or causes to be given to any child or young person any intoxicating liquor or dangerous drug or employs any child or young person for carrying or transporting liquor or dangerous drug the consumption of which is an offence under any law in force, shall, on conviction, be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

Penalty for permitting child or young person to enter places where liquor or dangerous drug is sold.

36-D. Whoever takes a child or young person to any place where intoxicating liquor or dangerous drugs are sold and whoever being the proprietor, owner or a person in charge of such place permits a child or young person to enter such place, and whoever causes or procures a child to go to such place, shall, on conviction, be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

Inciting child or young person to bet or borrow.

36-E. Whoever by words either spoken or written or by signs or otherwise incites or attempts to incite a child or young person to make any bet or wager or to enter into or take any share or interest in any betting or wagering transaction or to borrow money or to enter into any transaction involving the borrowing of money, shall, on conviction, be punishable with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to one month or with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees or with both.

Taking on pledge or purchasing articles from child or young person.

36-F. Whoever purchases or takes on pledge any article from a child or young person whether offered by that child or young person on his own behalf or on behalf of any other person, shall, on conviction, be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

36-G. Whoever allows or permits a child over the age of four years or a young person to reside in or frequently go to a brothel shall, on conviction, be punishable with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to two years or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both.

36-H. If it appears to a court on the complaint of any person that a girl under the age of sixteen years is with or without the knowledge of her parent or guardian, exposed to the risk of seduction or prostitution, the court may direct the parent or guardian to enter into a recognisance to exercise due care and supervision in respect of such girl.

36-I. (1) Whoever secures a child or young person ostensibly for the purpose of employment or labour and withholds or lives on the earnings of such child or young person, shall, on conviction, be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

(2) Whoever exposes a child or young person to the risk of seduction, sodomy, prostitution or other immoral condition, shall, on conviction, be punishable with imprisonment of either description for a term, which may extend to two years or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both.

36-J. All offences under this Part shall be cognizable.

PART VII.

Miscellaneous.

Presumption
tion of age.

37. (1) Where a person, whether charged with an offence or not, is brought before any court otherwise than for the purpose of giving evidence, and it appears to the court that he is a child or young person, the court shall make due inquiry as to the age of that person and for that purpose shall take such evidence as may be forthcoming at the hearing of the case, but an order or judgment of the court shall not be invalidated by any subsequent proof that the age of that person has not been correctly stated to the court, and the age presumed or declared by the court to be the age of the person so brought before it shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to be the true age of that person, and, where it appears to the court that the person so brought before it is of the age of<sup>1</sup> [eighteen] years or upwards, the person shall for the purposes of this Act be deemed not to be a child or young person.

(2) No court shall in appeal or revision interfere with any presumption or declaration as to age made under sub-section (1).

Provision as
persuasion.

38. (1) In determining the<sup>2</sup> [approved] school to which a youthful offender or child is to be sent under this Act, the court shall endeavour to ascertain the religious persuasion to which the youthful offender or child belongs and shall, if possible, select a school in which facilities are afforded for instruction in his religion.

<sup>2</sup> This word was substituted for the word "certified" by section 3 of, and the Schedule to, ibid.

(2) Where a child or young person is <sup>1</sup>[placed in suitable custody under this Act, the court in determining the person in whose custody the child or young person shall be placed] shall endeavour in like manner to ascertain the religion of the child or young person and shall, if possible, select a person of the same religion, or a person who gives such undertaking as seems to the court sufficient that the child or young person shall be brought up in accordance with his own religion.

<sup>2</sup>[38-A. (1) The State Government may, by rules made under this Act, provide for the establishment or recognition of after-care organisations and may vest them with such powers as may be necessary for effectively carrying out their functions under this Act. After-care organisations.

(2) Every such organisation shall take care of—

(a) children whose conduct in the approved schools, requires their being placed on probation ;

(b) children whose rehabilitation on discharge from approved schools, requires further attention; and

(c) such other children, as in the opinion of the State Government, require to be kept in suitable custody.

39. The conviction of a child or young person shall not be regarded as a conviction for the purposes of any disqualification attaching to a conviction for any offence.

Circumstances to be taken into consideration in making orders under this Act.

[C] A. For the purpose of making any order in respect of a child or young person under this Act, a competent court shall have regard to the following circumstances, namely :—

- (a) the age of the child or young person;
- (b) the circumstances in which the child or young person or parent of the child or young person is living;
- (c) the reports made by or obtained from the probation officer;
- (d) the reports made by or obtained from any person or organization approved by the State Government for the purpose;

(e) the religious persuasion of the child or young person ; and

(f) such other circumstances as may, in the opinion of the competent court, require to be taken into consideration in the interests of the child or young person as the case may be:

Provided that in the case of a youthful offender, the above circumstances shall be taken into consideration after the competent court has recorded a finding against the person that he has committed the offence.

39-B. (1) The State Government or such authority <sup>Appointment of Probation Officers.</sup> as may be empowered by it in this behalf may appoint probation officers for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) Subject to any rules that may be made under this Act, it shall be the duty of the probation officer—

(a) to visit children and young persons in need of protection and youthful offenders at such intervals as the probation officer may think fit;

(b) to report to the competent court on the behaviour of any child or young person in need of protection or any youthful offender;

(c) to advise and assist children and young persons in need of protection or youthful offenders and if necessary, endeavour to find them suitable employment;

(d) where a child or young person in need of protection or a youthful offender is placed under the care of any person on certain conditions, to see whether such conditions are being complied with; and

(e) to perform such other duties as may be prescribed.

Reports to be treated confidential.

39-C. The report of the probation officer or any other report considered by the competent court under section 39-1 shall be treated as confidential:

Provided that if such report relates to the character, health or conduct of, or the circumstances in which, the child or young person or parent of the child or young person is living, the competent court may, if it thinks it expedient, communicate the substance thereof to the child or young person or parent of the child or young person concerned, as the case may be, and may give the child or young person or parent an opportunity to produce such evidence as may be relevant to the matter stated in the report.

Prohibition of publication of names, etc., of children and young persons involved in any proceedings under this Act.

39-D. (1) No report in any newspaper, magazine or news sheet of any inquiry regarding a child or young person under this Act shall disclose the name, address or school or any other particulars calculated to lead to the identification of the child or young person nor shall any picture of any such child or young person be published :

Provided that for reasons to be recorded in writing the court holding the inquiry may permit such disclosure, if in its opinion such disclosure is in the interests of the child, or young person as the case may be.

(2) Any person contravening the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.]
